

The Riviera

By EVELYN DUDLEY

Sixty Girl Scouts from the Hollywood Riviera-Palos Verdes area gathered at the Malaga Cove auditorium Sunday, with parents and friends, for a combined Court of Awards and Brownie "Fly-up".

The "Fly-up" ceremony was presented under the leadership of Mrs. F. D. H. Eaton, with Mrs. Charles Houghton assisting. Mrs. William Kent's troop sang a song in honor of the Fly-ups and formed the ring of which they flew. Scout pins were presented to them by Miss Marie-Louise Alvis, whose troop welcomed them into their horseshoe.

Merit badges were presented to 48 Scouts in 14 classifications, under the leadership of Miss Marie-Louise Alvis, Mrs. William Lane, Mrs. Frederick Lakin, Mrs. Philip Shaw and Mrs. G. H. Miller. Highest awards went to a group of seven girls who won the distinction of becoming first class Scouts. Day's Denham, Martha Fisher, Nancy Ruth Miller, Ann MacKusick, Betsy Shaw, Dede Todd and Pam Pearson were the girls receiving first class badges.

Mrs. Paul Husted, organization chairman for the area, gave a short talk explaining the work done by the badge committee and what a girl must do to become a first class Scout. She then introduced Mrs. J. O'Hara Smith, commissioner for the South Bay Council, who spoke on the responsibilities of leaders, and how they could be shared by the community. A committee of mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clifford Easley served punch and cookies following the ceremonies.

The guests brought plants and flowers for their new home. Among those attending were Mrs. Isabelle Buchanan grandmother of Mrs. Olivares, Mrs. Margaret Bolton of Santa Monica and a group

King Forwards Resolution On Water Division

Three committees of the House of Representatives have been advised of the opposition of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce to Senate Bill 1175 which would take Colorado river water from Southern California's legally established share, Chamber Secretary Blaine Walker was advised this week by Congressman Cecil R. King.

"Southern California would be deprived of its fair share of Colorado river water," the local Chamber's resolution stated. In part, Senate Bill 1175 also is being opposed by other cities in the state which are served by the Metropolitan Water District.

The Torrance Chamber in its resolution also commended Senators Sheridan Downey and William F. Knowland for their opposition to the bill, and copies of the resolution were also forwarded to them.

The three committees that were advised of the local chamber's stand are the public Lands Committee of the Senate, the Public Lands Committee of the House and the House Judiciary Committee.

WATCH THIS HAZARD

Many pedestrians are killed yearly while walking along rural highways, the vast majority of them at night. The unweariness of the walker on the darkened road is a challenge to the motorist to be more wary. A first step is to keep headlights adjusted to provide a maximum of illumination.
